Everton v Newcastle United at Goodison Park on Saturday 17th August 1996, kick-off 3pm.

In conjunction with Everton FC, our supporters club will be running a 'day-return' coach to the above game. Outline details are as follows:-

05.15 meet at Larne Harbour P&O European Ferries Terminal (free car parking available adjacent to terminal) for 6am sailing.

Having crossed the Irish Sea on the new P&O Jetliner service, we will depart Cairnryan Harbour on a coach for Liverpool at 07.30 (approx.) to arrive at Goodison Park at 12.30 (approx.) having stopped en-route for approximately thirty minutes at Southwaite Service Station to enable you to buy/eat food.

18.00 depart Goodison Park (hopefully with three points) for Cairnryan with a sixty minute stopover en-route at Southwaite Service Station. We should arrive at Larne Harbour on the P&O Jetliner service at approx. 01.30 (Sunday).

Return fares including match ticket (Top Balcony) are as follows:-

Adult (ESCNI club member)	- £55
Adult (non-member)	- £60
Child (under 16)	- £47
Child (under 14) and OAP's	- £40

The tickets for the Top Balcony have been guaranteed by Everton FC to ESCNI.

Places on this trip are strictly limited and over 30 have already been reserved.

If you have already expressed interest and have not yet paid your deposit, please forward your cheque or postal order (made payable to ESCNI) for £10 per person to either John McAllister or Peter Cross by 31 July to guarantee your place on the trip.

If you are interested in the above trip but have not yet expressed interest, please phone John McAllister or Peter Cross between 6pm and 9pm to confirm availability. Your place(s) will be provisionally reserved until your cheque or postal order (made payable to ESCNI) for £10 per person is received.

Please note the following important matters:

- 1. Due to legal restrictions in Scotland and England, the consumption of alcohol will NOT be permitted on the coach.
- 2. For the comfort of all passengers, smoking will NOT be permitted on the coach.
- 3. In the event of your non attendance, the £10 deposit is non refundable.
